Material Greco vs published ufcstats note: Buckley's UFC.com totals match Greco, except UFC.com's takedown widget ("7 of 42"), which conflicts with its own 1.43 TD avg. Malott's published figures (SLpM 4.02, Acc 48%, SApM 3.09, Def 56%, TD Acc 50%, TDD 57%) include his DWCS fight and do not reconcile with the fight rows. Package math uses Greco.

3. Style Clash (sourced, how they normally win)

Buckley path: Southpaw power with eight UFC KO/TKO wins (Thompson punch, Fialho head kick, Kasanganay spinning back kick, Luque ground strikes) and a body attack that makes up 27.9% of his landed strikes. He uses early takedowns to bank rounds (Thompson 4/7, Ruziboev 4/4), and his volume climbs late (20.6 SS per R3). His best defensive night was Covington (1/8 TD against). His last two fights were losses on the mat: Usman 12:57 CTRL and Brady 12:09 CTRL, with Brady turning caught kicks into takedowns (MMA Fighting).

Malott path: Accurate Muay Thai kickboxing (52.3%) with heavy leg-kick investment and elite knockdown rate (0.98/15), plus a BJJ black belt's submission game off knockdowns and scrambles (Fugitt guillotine, Lainesse arm-triangle). His takedown defense held up against a four-time BJJ world champion (Burns 0/7). The one UFC blemish is Magny: Malott won R1–R2 clearly (41-11 SS), then absorbed 46 strikes in R3 and was finished from mount at 4:45.

Central tension: Malott wins most striking-efficiency rows, and his 0:31 CTRL against per 15 is top-6% in the division. Buckley's advantages are raw knockdown volume, body work, and a striking output that grows by round. Malott's output shrinks after R2 while his absorption more than doubles from R1 to R3. This is the first time Malott is scheduled past 15 minutes in a fight that could go there. Buckley has gone 25 minutes once, and he won R3–R5 against Usman on volume (41-24). The open question is whether Malott, a submission grappler, wrestles the fighter Usman and Brady controlled, or keeps it at kickboxing range where Buckley's power lives.

Southpaw vs orthodox + physicals: Malott +3" height; Buckley +3" reach (TOTT). Malott lands 20% of his strikes to the legs, and Buckley's lead leg is open in an open-stance matchup. Buckley's kicks are a double-edged weapon here: they finished Fialho and Kasanganay, but Brady caught them and took him down.

4. Optimal Matchup Path (keys — not picks)

For Buckley (Blue)

- Make it a 25-minute fight. His volume rises by round (13.9 → 20.6 SS) while Malott's absorption climbs from 8.1 in R1 to 20.0 in R3. The Magny R3 is the model.
- Go to the body. 28% body share, landing 63% of body attempts, against a fighter whose defense fades as he tires.
- Pick his kicks. Brady caught two and Malott is a black belt with two UFC submission wins. Southpaw lefts down the middle carry less takedown risk.
- Use the takedown threat early. A Malott who has to defend shots early (Thompson 4/7 model) has less to give on the feet later, but avoid long stretches in Malott's guard.

For Malott (Red)

- Win the accuracy battle at distance. 52% vs 36% accuracy, and Buckley's head-strike accuracy is 28%.
- Kick the lead leg early. He landed 17 leg kicks in one round against Magny and 18 against Giles.
- Take the top when it opens up. Usman and Brady showed the path, and Malott's R3 takedowns decided the Holland fight. A knockdown into a front headlock or guillotine is his UFC 289 finish.
- Manage R3–R5. Bank the early rounds without giving up the late scrambles that cost him against Magny.

Expectation-break watch: (1) A Buckley knockdown would be the first Malott has absorbed in the UFC. (2) Malott landing 2+ TD with 4+ min CTRL in any round would put Buckley in the Usman/Brady pattern. (3) R4–R5 is new territory for Malott; if Buckley out-lands him in R3 the late rounds swing toward the American. (4) Buckley out-landing Malott on accuracy would break his career-long low-accuracy profile (36%).

1. Early Life and Athletic Background

Buckley was born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri, and spent most of his youth living with his mother in his grandmother's house. His mother died of a heart condition when he was in sixth grade (MMA Junkie "Fight Path," Mar 2015; Wikipedia). He wrestled at Marquette High School in Chesterfield, Missouri, became interested in MMA, and started training after graduation (Wikipedia; UFCalendar lists folkstyle wrestling as his base).

UFC.com Q&A: he started training in 2012 because "It's something I always wanted to do." Before fighting he worked "Simple jobs." Favorite techniques are the blast double on the mat and the jab on the feet. The nickname comes from the "Mali Empire – 'Mansa' meaning king" (UFC.com fighter facts).

Amateur MMA: 8-0 on Shamrock FC and regional St. Louis-area cards in 2013–2014 (UFCalendar). He turned pro in September 2014.

2. Training Gym, Coaches, and Training Partners

- Home gym: Finney's MMA in the St. Louis metro (Wikipedia lists him there from 2012; MMA Junkie's 2015 "Fight Path" profile describes the gym as his "new family"). Jesse Finney is listed as head coach (UFCalendar).
- Other affiliations: Murcielago MMA (Wikipedia, from 2020; Sherdog association) and STL Boxing (UFC.com "Trains at").
- Style label (UFC.com): "Freestyle."
- Wrestling side project: Buckley has competed twice in Real American Freestyle — a loss to Pat Downey at RAF 03 (Nov 29, 2025) and a decision loss to Tyron Woodley at RAF 12 (Aug 22, 2026) that earned Match of the Night (USA Wrestling; RAF recap; Wikipedia). The Woodley match was eight weeks before this booking.

4. Professional Fight Promotions and Career Trajectory

Shamrock FC (2014–2015): Went 5-0 on St. Louis cards, four by stoppage.

Bellator (2016–2018): Knee KO of UFC veteran Chris Heatherly at Bellator 157 (catchweight 180). First pro loss, a first-round TKO by Jackie Gosh in Tel Aviv. Decision wins over Justin Patterson and Vinicius de Jesus, then a unanimous-decision loss to unbeaten wrestler Logan Storley at Bellator 197.

UFC middleweight (2020–2022): TKO loss to Kevin Holland in the debut. Then the spinning back kick knockout of Impa Kasanganay, which became the most-viewed UFC post on several platforms and won 2020 Knockout of the Year from MMA Fighting, MMA Junkie, Sherdog, ESPN and others (Wikipedia; ESPN). Followed with KOs of Jordan Wright and Antonio Arroyo, a split decision over Alhassan, and a doctor-stoppage win over Albert Duraev, with a head-kick KO loss to Di Chirico in between. Back-to-back losses to Nassourdine Imavov (UD) and Chris Curtis (KO) closed his middleweight run.

- Holland TKO L (Aug 2020): UFC debut on one week's notice. Absorbed 79/134 SS and 2 KD.

Career adversity / cardio trends: Buckley's striking volume rises by round. He averages 13.9 SS landed in R1, 15.6 in R2 and 20.6 in R3, and his three biggest UFC rounds (Ruziboev R3 64, Luque R2 40, Morono R3 40) all came late. His takedowns run the other way: 0.76 per R1, 0.38 per R2, 0.00 in any R3–R5. Against Usman he won R3–R5 on volume after losing R1–R2 on the mat. Against Brady he never got that late surge because he spent most of each round on his back. He has not been knocked down since December 2022.

Expectation Breaks

- Covington (Dec 2024): Held a former interim champion and elite volume wrestler to 1/8 TD and won the striking count by 38.
- Thompson (Oct 2024): Out-wrestled a karate specialist (4/7 TD, 4:13 CTRL) while trailing on the feet, then knocked him out in R3.
- Ruziboev (May 2024): 4/4 TD, then 64 landed in one round.
- Against priors — Usman R5 (Jun 2025): Stuffed all 6 takedowns in the 25th minute against a wrestler who had controlled the first two rounds.
- Against priors — Brady (May 2026): Coming off the Covington TDD night, he landed 5 strikes in 15 minutes and spent 12:09 under control.

UFC.com's takedown-accuracy widget reads "7 of 42," which conflicts with its own 1.43 TD avg (that rate implies about 19 takedowns). Greco's 19/42 is used. UFC.com also labels the Usman and Brady losses as wins in its athlete record widget; the official results are losses.

6. Fighting Style, Strengths, and How They Win

- Southpaw power puncher and kicker: Eight UFC KO/TKO wins and 0.68 KD per 15 (pctl 86). He finishes with punches at distance, head kicks and the occasional spinning technique. He throws a lot and lands at a low rate (36.4%, pctl 20), especially to the head (28.4%), but lands 63% of his body shots.
- Body attack: 27.9% of his landed strikes go to the body (Morono R3: 14; Holland: 30 over two rounds).
- Wrestling as a weapon, not a base: 45% TD accuracy and 70% TDD on the career line. He shoots early to bank rounds (Thompson, Ruziboev) and stuffed Covington. But elite chain wrestlers have controlled him: Usman (12:57) and Brady (12:09).
- Late-round volume: Output rises by round; his late surges decided the Luque, Morono and Ruziboev fights and nearly turned the Usman fight.
- Risk flags: Two straight losses to top-ten wrestlers with 25:06 of combined control against. Catchable kicks (Brady turned two of them into takedowns). Low head-strike accuracy. 71% opponent accuracy in the clinch. Four career KO/TKO losses. The Woodley freestyle match was eight weeks before fight night.

7. Community / Expert Predictions and Sentiment

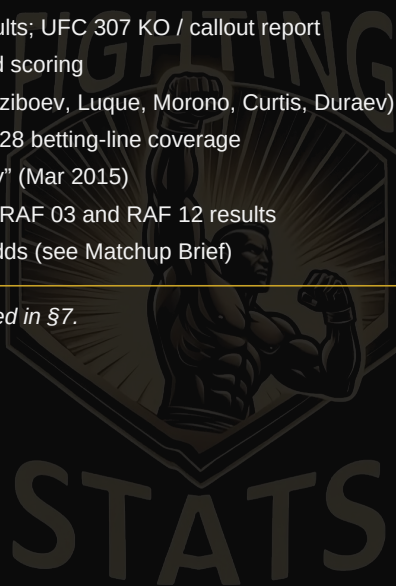

Label: opinion / media narrative — not facts about fight outcome.

- Market: Underdog. UFCalendar shows an open of +110 (Malott -104) and a consensus of +126, ≈44% implied, with books from +100 (Polymarket) to +131 (BetOnline). CageOracle lists +119 / Malott -142 and a model at 45% Buckley.
- Framing: UFC.com's announcement calls him "a dangerous KO artist" looking "to halt Malott's momentum behind enemy lines to set himself up for a shot at the division's Top 5." Coverage centers on whether he can rebound from the Usman and Brady wrestling losses against a Canadian main-eventer on home soil.
- Fan boards: UFCalendar's early fan picks lean heavily to Malott (83% of a 12–17 pick sample).
- Style talk: Malott is a BJJ black belt with a sprawl that stuffed Burns 0/7. The question is whether Buckley's power and late volume can work against a longer, more accurate striker, and whether Malott chooses to wrestle a fighter Usman and Brady controlled.

MIKE MALOTT — FIGHT NARRATIVES (UFC)

Round stats from Greco ABCD tables / UFC Stats unless noted. Official judge cards from Greco DETAILS, shown from Malott's perspective.

vs Gilbert Burns (Apr 18, 2026) — W TKO R3 2:08 (punches) · POTN ($100k) — first UFC main event, Winnipeg

- R1: 13/34 SS vs Burns 11/38; stuffed 0/4 TD. Burns tried to keep him at bay with leg kicks (Sherdog).
- R2: 22/53 vs 23/37; stuffed 0/2. Damage built on Burns' face from accurate combinations (Sherdog).
- R3: 21/34 + 2 KD vs 6/17; stuffed 0/1. A right uppercut and left hook dropped Burns, Malott let him up, then an overhand right dropped him at the fence and ground punches ended it (Sherdog). Fight: 56/121 vs 40/92; Burns 0/7 TD, 0:01 CTRL.
- Tape signal: A four-time BJJ world champion never got him down. Burns retired after the fight (Field Level Media; MMA Mania).

vs Kevin Holland (Oct 18, 2025) — W UD R3 (29-28 ×3) — co-main, Vancouver

- R1: 12/29 vs 9/31; 0/2 TD, 0:30 CTRL; absorbed 1/1 TD. Two accidental low blows stopped the fight; Holland took the full five-minute recovery, and referee Dan Miragliotta did not deduct a point (MMA Mania; Bloody Elbow; MMA Fighting).
- R2: 26/42 vs 23/70 (8 body strikes). Holland threw far more; Malott landed at a much higher rate.
- R3: 11/24 vs 20/36; 1/2 TD, 2:01 CTRL, 1 SUB attempt. Fight: 49/95 vs 52/137 SS.
- Tape signal: Won all three cards while being out-landed by three. Critics argued a deduction would have made it a 28-28 draw (MMA News). His striking defense (62% of Holland's attempts missed) and a late takedown carried R2–R3.

vs Charles Radtke (May 10, 2025) — W KO R2 0:26 (punches) — UFC 315, Montreal

- R1: 27/47 vs 10/29, including 10 leg kicks.
- R2: 9/14 + 1 KD → finished 26 seconds in (Cageside Press: “electrifies Canadian crowd”). Fight: 36/61 vs 10/33.

vs Trevin Giles (Nov 2, 2024) — W UD R3 (30-27, 29-28, 29-28) — Edmonton

- R1: 12/37 vs 9/16 (6 leg). R2: 28/54 vs 17/32 (7 leg, 8 body). R3: 19/39 vs 8/30 (5 leg, 7 body). Fight: 59/130 vs 34/78; 0/1 TD; no takedown attempts against.
- Tape signal: A pure kickboxing decision with 18 leg kicks. Cageside Press called it a “patient game plan.” His last fight in Edmonton.

vs Neil Magny (Jan 20, 2024) — L TKO R3 4:45 (punches from mount) — UFC 297, Toronto

- R1: 20/31 vs 5/25, with 17 leg kicks.
- R2: 21/30 vs 6/15; 2/2 TD, 3:08 CTRL, 12 ground strikes.
- R3: 4/6 vs 46/62. Malott went 2/4 TD with 2:36 CTRL, but Magny reversed (1/1 TD, 1:44 CTRL), took mount and finished with 15 seconds left. Fight: 45/67 vs 57/102.
- Primary tape vulnerability: Up two rounds on the cards, then gave up 46 strikes in one round and was finished. Cageside Press: “Neil Magny comes from behind, finishes Malott at the buzzer.” It is the only R3 where he lost the striking count badly, and his only UFC loss.

vs Adam Fugitt (Jun 10, 2023) — W SUB R2 1:06 (guillotine) · POTN — Vancouver

- R1: 14/33 vs 7/23; 2/2 TD, 1:19 CTRL.
- R2: 5/8 + 1 KD → guillotine on the ground.

vs Yohan Laines (Feb 25, 2023) — W SUB R1 4:15 (arm-triangle from half guard) · POTN

- R1: 9/17 vs 1/4; 1/1 TD, 1:36 CTRL, 1 SUB → arm-triangle. All-Canadian matchup (TSN).

vs Mickey Gall (Apr 9, 2022) — W TKO R1 3:41 (punches) — UFC 273 debut

- R1: 28/44 (64%) + 1 KD vs 13/30; absorbed 1/1 TD. A left hook folded Gall (MMA Junkie).

Pre-UFC (condensed)

- Smotritsky (DWCS, Oct 2021): Guillotine in 39 seconds against a 7-0 opponent for the contract.
- Renfro (CFFC 91, Dec 2020): RNC in 1:42 of a 6-0 opponent after three years away.
- Shintani (XFFC 13, Feb 2017): 36-second KO for the XFFC lightweight title.
- Dawodu (WSOF 14, Oct 2014): TKO loss in R1 to a future UFC featherweight after missing weight.

Career adversity / cardio trends: Malott has never fought past 15 minutes, and his longest fight is 15:00 (Giles, Holland). His defense slips as fights go on: he absorbs 8.1 sig strikes in R1, 11.8 in R2 and 20.0 in R3 on average (inflated by Magny’s 46). His control time runs the other way (0:29 per R1 → 1:13 per R3), and his late takedowns decided R3 against Holland. Burns was his first scheduled five-rounder and ended at 12:08.

Expectation Breaks

- Burns (Apr 2026): Stuffed all 7 takedown attempts from a four-time BJJ world champion and finished him with 2 knockdowns in R3.
- Radtke (May 2025): Finished Radtke 26 seconds into R2 after out-landing him 27-10 in R1.
- Holland (Oct 2025): Won all three cards against one of the division’s busiest strikers while landing at 52%.
- Against priors — Magny (Jan 2024): Led 41-11 in landed strikes through two rounds and was finished in R3 (4 landed vs 46).

Material Greco vs published UFC Stats / UFC.com: Published figures (SLpM 4.02, Str. Acc 48%, SAPM 3.09, Str. Def 56%, TD avg 1.63, TD Acc 50%, TDD 57%, Sub avg 0.7) include the DWCS fight, and UFC.com's totals (370/769 SS) do not reconcile with the fight-by-fight rows. Package math uses Greco's eight UFC fights (301/576 SS). The TDD gap (72.7% vs 57%) is the largest difference and changes the read on his takedown defense, so both are shown.

6. Fighting Style, Strengths, and How They Win

- Accurate Muay Thai kickboxer: 52.3% accuracy (pctl 84) with 0.98 KD per 15 (pctl 92). Combination punching to the head, plus leg kicks (Magny 17 in R1; Giles 18; Radtke 10 in R1). Almost all of his work is at distance (84%); he rarely strikes in the clinch.
- Submission threat on top: BJJ black belt with six career submissions (two armbars, two guillotines, RNC, arm-triangle). In the UFC he submits off knockdowns and scrambles (Fugitt) or after a takedown (Lainesse).
- Takedown defense: 0:31 control against per 15 (pctl 94). Burns went 0/7; Giles and Radtke never tried. The published UFC Stats TDD (57%) is less flattering than Greco's 72.7% because it includes DWCS.
- How recent wins look: Four straight — Giles kickboxing UD, Radtke R2 KO, Holland UD through the foul controversy, Burns R3 TKO in a main event.
- Risk flags: Defense fades late (Magny R3 46 absorbed; 20.0 R3 average). Has never fought past 15 minutes. His only UFC loss came after Magny reversed position late in R3. Age 34. A small sample against high-level wrestlers. Holland out-landed him on volume.

- Framing: UFC.com: Malott “plans to enter the welterweight Top 10 with a dominant performance in his second UFC main event” and “intends to deliver another show-stealing finish on home soil.” Sportsnet and Canadian outlets frame it as a home-country headliner for a fighter who is 5-1 in Canada.
- Fan boards: UFCalendar fan picks favor Malott 83% in an early sample.

- Style talk: Can Malott's accuracy and TDD handle Buckley's power over 25 minutes, and does his late-round defensive fade show up against a fighter whose output rises in R3?

Welterweight Division Context

Upcoming bout is billed Welterweight. Division pool (n=454): Fighters whose majority of UFC bouts are in billed class 'Welterweight', OR whose most recent UFC bout is in that family. Last Greco weight class: Buckley = Welterweight Bout; Malott = Welterweight Bout. Values: fighter · division average · delta · standing in division. Control rows show seconds and % of a 15-min fight.

SLpM 3.94 (top 22%) · TDD 72.7% (top 28%) · SS Def 57.1% (top 35%). Last Greco class: Welterweight Bout.

Standing = share of the Welterweight pool at or better on that metric ("top X%"). For Control allowed / 15, KD Abs rate, and SAPM, lower is better.

Joaquin Buckley — A/B/C/D Fight Tables

Locked next-build tables. A/B = every UFC round × opponent (most recent first); sig by distance / clinch / ground only (no head/body/leg). Striking time = mm:ss [% of round clock] (clock – CTRL). Stand/15* = projected sig pace if stand-up lasted a full 15 min on striking-time basis. C/D = fight-level grappling. C/D styles: bold gold wash = ≥1 TD attempt; muted = 0 attempts; teal wash = landed ≥1 TD vs historically strong career TDD (≥70%). Diff = subject sig landed – absorbed.

A — Offensive Significant Strikes — Joaquin Buckley

SS T/L = thrown/landed. Dist/Clin/Gnd = sig landed/thrown by position. Tot D/C/G uses UFCStats position splits (all distance strikes are significant).

Mike Malott — A/B/C/D Fight Tables

Locked next-build tables. A/B = every UFC round × opponent (most recent first); sig by distance / clinch / ground only (no head/body/leg). Striking time = mm:ss [% of round clock] (clock – CTRL). Stand/15* = projected sig pace if stand-up lasted a full 15 min on striking-time basis. C/D = fight-level grappling. C/D styles: bold gold wash = ≥1 TD attempt; muted = 0 attempts; teal wash = landed ≥1 TD vs historically strong career TDD (≥70%). Diff = subject sig landed – absorbed.

A — Offensive Significant Strikes — Mike Malott

SS T/L = thrown/landed. Dist/Clin/Gnd = sig landed/thrown by position. Tot D/C/G uses UFCStats position splits (all distance strikes are significant).
