Material UFC Stats vs published note: UFC Stats covers UFC bouts only; Sezinando's TUF 33 house fights are excluded. Both samples are a single loss to Daniil Donchenko.

3. Style Clash (sourced, how they normally win)

Sezinando path (how he has been winning): Grappling and early finishes. BJJ black belt (UFC.com) with two rear-naked chokes and a triangle as a pro, four KO/TKOs and five first-round finishes. Against Donchenko he shot four takedowns in under five minutes and landed 30% of his strikes from the clinch.

Berggren path (how he has been winning): Length and finishing. All eight pro wins are stoppages — five KO/TKOs and three rear-naked chokes — and his last two regional wins were R2 and R3 TKOs (Sherdog). He fights from a switch stance at 75" reach.

Central tension: Sezinando's takedowns against Berggren's untested UFC takedown defence. Berggren has the reach and the late-round finishes; Sezinando needs to close distance against a longer opponent. Burlinson submitted Berggren with an arm-triangle in 2024, and Sezinando has three submission wins.

Orthodox vs switch + physicals: Berggren is two inches taller with a four-inch reach edge (UFC Stats). Sezinando is two years older and returns from a 413-day layoff; Berggren is back after 126 days.

Shared opponents: Daniil Donchenko — stopped Sezinando in R1 of the TUF 33 final (Sep 2025) and Berggren in R2 (Jun 2026). Donchenko out-landed Sezinando 39-10 and Berggren 71-23.

4. Optimal Matchup Path (keys — not picks)

For Sezinando

- Close the distance and get to the clinch, where 30% of his UFC strikes landed.
- Chain takedowns; Berggren's takedown defence has not been tested in the UFC.
- Hunt the back from scrambles — two of his three submissions are rear-naked chokes.
- Keep his hands up on entries; he was knocked down and stopped in R1 by Donchenko.

For Berggren

- Use the jab and the four-inch reach edge to keep Sezinando at range.
- Defend the first takedown and get back up.
- Check leg kicks; 40.8% of what he absorbed against Donchenko went to the legs.
- Push into R2 and R3, where he finished Battaglia and Samedov.

Expectation-break watch: (1) Berggren's takedown defence, untested at UFC level. (2) Ring rust for Sezinando after 413 days. (3) Durability on both sides — each was stopped by Donchenko. (4) Sezinando's weight history; Sherdog carries him at 185.

1. Early Life and Athletic Background

Berggren told UFC.com he started MMA in 2017: he was a difficult kid, and his mother made him try it. He names his mother as his biggest inspiration and the late Anthony "Rumble" Johnson as his favourite fighter. He studied trade but never worked in it, and has worked day shifts in a factory since he was 2-0 as a pro, with an employer who lets him train and take time off for camps and fights (UFC.com).

He says he wants to show young Swedish fighters that they do not need the biggest or best gym to make it in MMA (UFC.com).
